

Train Details

Train travel includes:

- Amtrak day train from Seattle to Vancouver, B.C.
- Sleeper Touring class accommodations aboard VIA Rail's Canadian train from Vancouver to Toronto
- Business class from Toronto to Montréal
- Sleeper class accommodations aboard VIA Rail's Ocean train from Montréal to Halifax

Trains

Three categories of rooms are available on the overnight trains with three different prices. VIA Rail also provides a discount for travelers over 60 years of age, which makes determining your Adventure price almost as challenging as reading an IRS tax table (but a lot more fun!).

Vancouver to Toronto:

4 nights on the Canadian train, Sleeper Touring class

- Double Accommodation w/out facilities – two passengers in bunk-style beds without the toilet and washbasin – bathroom facilities are just around the corner.
- Double Room – two passengers in bunk-style bed accommodation with a toilet and washbasin en suite.
- Single Room – toilet and washbasin en suite; the bed covers the toilet at night.

One well-maintained shower is available in each car.

Montréal to Halifax:

1 night on the Ocean train, Sleeper class

- Double Accommodation w/out facilities – this train does not include this type of cabin. Travelers choosing this option will be placed in Double Rooms below.
- Double Room – for passengers traveling two per room, has a toilet, washbasin, and shower en suite.
- Single Room – for passengers traveling without a roommate, has a toilet and washbasin en suite; the shower is just around the corner.

Berth Choices	Age 60+	Under Age 60
Double accommodation w/out facilities	$4950	$5150
Double room	$5490	$5675
Single room	$5460	$5650

All prices are listed per person.
