Introduction

Christmas in the Alps is one of our favorite holiday Adventures. We start in Munich, fascinating age-old capital of the German state of Bavaria. Two delightful, alpine, winter wonderland walks, one in Germany and one in Austria are punctuated with memorable gasthaus/farm breaks for lunch or snacks. Sightseeing in the German and Austrian Alps, and a memorable stay in the remote Austrian Kleinwalser Valley, are sandwiched between Munich and our final stop in Salzburg.

Three nights in Salzburg, magical city of Mozart, marzipan, and the Sound of Music provide opportunity for more great walking and a visit to Oberndorf, site of the first performance of the beloved carol, "Silent Night." Colorful Christmas markets, in a region that projects a proprietary interest in the celebration of Christmas, are sprinkled throughout this yuletide Adventure like a rainbow of sugary toppings on a Christmas cookie!
