Introduction

The extraordinary breadth of Oregon's geography and eye-popping scenery is a well-kept secret those of us who live here are proud of and perhaps somewhat reluctant to unveil. We've seen a fair bit of the planet and not many corners offer this much variety in a relatively small package. Highlights include:

- The Columbia River Gorge is a National Scenic Area, a stunning setting of riverside cliffs and super-abundant waterfall.
- The Cascade Mountains boast a spectacular string of conical volcanic peaks, snow-covered for much of the year.
- Stunning and remote Crater Lake National Park is among the most inconspicuous of Oregon's well-kept secrets.
- Redwoods National Park, just across the border in Northern California offers an unforgettable encounter with some of the largest trees on the planet.
